SECTION B - POLICY STATEMENT

B.1 Principles

Eynesbury College will monitor, record and assess the academic standing of each student for the modules in which they are enrolled.

Eynesbury College is committed to implementing an intervention strategy for any student who is at risk of not making satisfactory academic progress, by offering effective support mechanisms.

Eynesbury College aims to provide its students with the best possible opportunity to succeed in their studies.

B.2 Policy

- 1 Academic support mechanisms
 - 1.1 Eynesbury College timetables Supported Study where students are able to complete self-directed study tasks from the various discipline areas.
 - 1.2 One-to-one meetings with the Program Coordinator (FSP), the Student Learning Adviser (SLA) and teaching staff are available by appointment.
- 2 Students at risk
 - 2.1 The SLA will monitor students' progress for the modules in which they are enrolled, to identify any who may be 'at risk' of failing to make satisfactory academic progress.
 - 2.2 Students will be assessed for being at risk using set criteria.
 - 2.3 Students who are deemed to be at risk of making unsatisfactory progress will be counselled and provided with the appropriate support mechanisms outlined in (1) above.
 - 2.4 Eynesbury College has intervention strategies in place to support any student who is assessed as being at risk of making unsatisfactory academic progress.
 - 2.5 Eynesbury College will assess the progress of every student at the completion of each study period and those identified as being at risk of making unsatisfactory academic progress will have a compulsory appointment with the SLA.
- 3 Levels of Academic Standing
 - 3.1 Good
 - 3.1.1 A student at the start of their program is one who is making satisfactory academic progress.
 - 3.2 Warning
 - 3.2.1 A student who achieves a score of less than 50% in 50% or more of their modules, for the first time, in a given study period.

3.2.2 Students will be issued with a warning letter and provided counselling on a range of options that may include a reduction in study load, repeating a module or changing a module.

3.3 Probation

- 3.3.1 A student who achieves a score of less than 50% in 50% or more of their modules in a subsequent study period.
- 3.3.2 Students will be issued with a probation letter outlining the conditions of probations and will be provided with counselling and academic support.

3.4 Unsatisfactory

3.4.1 Students who are deemed to have made unsatisfactory academic progress in a third consecutive study period.

4 Students with Unsatisfactory Academic Standing

4.1 Students who are deemed to have made unsatisfactory academic progress in three consecutive study periods will be considered to have made unsatisfactory academic progress and will be issued with an Intention to Report (ITR) for failing to make satisfactory academic progress. They may also have their Confirmation of Enrolment (CoE) cancelled.
